TRAPPUS Affiliate Program Agreement

This Agreement is between ARC287BC Corporation, doing business as TRAPPUS (“ARC287BC,” “we,” or “us”), and the person or business applying to participate in the TRAPPUS Affiliate Program (“Affiliate” or “you”).

1. Purpose of the program

The TRAPPUS Affiliate Program allows you to earn commissions by referring customers who purchase eligible TRAPPUS books through your assigned affiliate link or QR code. ARC287BC may also authorize you to share specific TRAPPUS educational materials. Commissions under this Agreement apply exclusively to eligible book sales.

2. Eligibility and registration

You must be able to enter into this Agreement and provide accurate registration and contact information. If you apply on behalf of a business, you represent that you have authority to enter into this Agreement for that business. Keep your contact, payee, and payment details current.

3. Verification and immediate approval

To join, you must accept this Agreement, verify your cellphone using the one-time code sent by text message, and verify your email address. Your account will be approved immediately after you complete these steps. Once approved, you may sign in to the Affiliate Area and access your assigned affiliate link and QR code.

4. First 30 days after approval

ARC287BC has 30 calendar days from your approval date to review your participation and revoke your approval if it determines that you violated this Agreement. If we revoke approval, we will notify you by email, explain the reason, and deactivate your affiliate link and QR code. You may request a review as described in Section 17. Section 18 explains what happens to commissions earned before closure.

5. Joining before the book release

You may join the program and receive your affiliate link and QR code before the book is released. You may share ARC287BC’s pre-approved Coming Soon materials as they become available. Commissions begin when eligible books are available and customers complete qualifying purchases.

6. Your affiliate account, link, QR code, and transfers

Use the affiliate link and QR code assigned to your account, and keep your login credentials secure. You may share your link and QR code through approved promotions. Use your own affiliate identifier and preserve the tracking information when sharing it.

You may transfer your affiliate account, program participation, or rights under this Agreement to another person or business only with ARC287BC’s prior written approval. Send us a written request before a proposed transfer. If we approve it, ARC287BC will confirm the effective date and how the affiliate link, QR code, and any outstanding commissions will be handled.

7. Qualifying sales and commission

You earn $1 USD per qualifying book copy sold. A qualifying sale is a completed, paid purchase of an eligible TRAPPUS book that is credited to your affiliate account and complies with this Agreement. If a customer buys three qualifying copies in one order, you earn $3 USD. Clicks, scans, signups, and unpaid orders do not earn a commission.

8. Referral tracking and missing sales

The standard referral tracking window is 30 days from the tracked visit, subject to the customer's browser and tracking choices. If a sale appears to be missing, contact ARC287BC and provide the order reference or other information you are authorized to share. We will review the available records and correct the attribution if the records support your claim.

9. Affiliate dashboard

The private Affiliate Area gives you access to your link, QR code, Books Sold counter, and commission records. The counter reflects qualifying copies credited to your account and may be adjusted for refunds, returns, or corrections. Use the commission records to review amounts earned and payments made.

10. Commission hold, electronic payments, and fees

Each qualifying commission becomes eligible for payment 60 calendar days after the corresponding sale, provided the sale remains valid. ARC287BC will pay eligible commissions in its next monthly payout cycle. All payouts are electronic and may be made by deposit to your checking account, through Zelle® where supported, or through another electronic payment method approved by ARC287BC.

International payouts. If you are outside the United States and need another way to receive commissions, contact ARC287BC before promoting the book. Tell us your country and which electronic payment methods you can receive. We will review available options with you. These may include an international bank transfer, an electronic payment service, or Bitcoin where permitted and mutually agreed. Commissions are calculated in U.S. dollars. Before using an alternative payment method, we will confirm the method and how any conversion will be handled.

Payout fees. ARC287BC will deduct the transfer or payment-processing fees it incurs to send your commission from that payout at the time of payment. Your payout statement will show the gross commission, fees deducted, and net amount paid.

Keep your payment details current and provide any required tax documentation. If missing or incorrect information prevents payment, we will notify you by email.

11. Refunds, chargebacks, and commission corrections

Refunded, canceled, charged-back, or fraudulent sales are ineligible for commissions. If a partial refund covers specific book copies, we will reverse the commission for those copies. If we already paid a commission that is later reversed, ARC287BC may deduct that amount from future commissions and will identify the adjustment in your commission records or by email.

12. Pre-approved letters and marketing materials

ARC287BC will prepare and place pre-approved promotional letters and other materials in the Affiliate Area of the TRAPPUS website to help you sell the book. These may include email templates, social media posts, sample messages, book images, graphics, and suggested wording for sharing your link or QR code. We will add materials as we identify what helps affiliates promote the book.

You may use the current pre-approved materials as provided and insert your assigned affiliate link or QR code where indicated.

13. Approval of your own promotions

Obtain prior written approval from ARC287BC before using any advertisement, letter, post, video, website, or other promotion you create for the program. The same requirement applies if you alter pre-approved materials beyond inserting your assigned link or QR code where indicated. To request approval, send ARC287BC a copy of the proposed promotion and identify where you plan to use it.

14. Disclosure of your commission

When you endorse the book or share your affiliate link or QR code, clearly disclose that you may earn a commission. Place the disclosure alongside the promotion so people can see it before acting. You may use the following wording where accurate.

> I earn $1 for each qualifying TRAPPUS book sold through my link or QR code.

15. Prohibited conduct

You may not use spam, deceptive claims, impersonation, fake orders, manipulated referral tracking, or unauthorized offers. Use current, authorized information about the book, its price, and its availability.

You may not use this program to promote or solicit purchases of ARC287BC shares, securities, or other investments, or to solicit funds on the company’s behalf.

16. Use of the TRAPPUS name, logos, and materials

While your affiliate account is active, you may use the TRAPPUS name, logos, and materials as supplied or specifically approved by ARC287BC for this program. ARC287BC retains ownership of its materials. Identify yourself as a TRAPPUS affiliate and direct customers to the official TRAPPUS website for purchases, customer support, and refunds.

17. Term, suspension, and termination

Your participation runs for one year from your approval date and may be renewed by written agreement. You may end your participation by notifying ARC287BC in writing.

After the initial 30-day review period, ARC287BC may suspend or terminate your participation for a material violation of this Agreement. Where the violation can reasonably be corrected, we will tell you what needs to change and give you a reasonable opportunity to correct it. ARC287BC may suspend an account immediately for fraud, unlawful conduct, or unauthorized investment promotion.

You may request a review of a revocation, suspension, or termination by responding to the notice or contacting ARC287BC through the website.

18. Account closure and outstanding commissions

When your account closes, stop promoting the program and remove or disable your affiliate links, QR codes, and TRAPPUS promotional materials from channels you control. Purchases made after deactivation are ineligible for commission.

Valid commissions earned before closure remain payable under the normal holding period and payout rules. Commissions connected to a violation, fraud, refund, cancellation, or chargeback may be reversed under this Agreement.

19. Independent relationship

You participate as an independent affiliate. You have no authority to make commitments, negotiate terms, collect customer payments, or speak on behalf of ARC287BC. ARC287BC handles book orders and customer service. You are responsible for your own promotional expenses and applicable tax obligations.

20. Privacy and program communications

ARC287BC uses registration, verification, referral, and payment information to administer the program in accordance with its posted privacy policy. ARC287BC may send program notices to your registered email address. Direct customers to the official TRAPPUS website for checkout and handle any customer information you receive in accordance with applicable law.

21. Changes and disputes

ARC287BC will notify you of material changes to this Agreement before they take effect. Changes to the commission rate apply to future qualifying sales.

For an account, tracking, or payment dispute, contact ARC287BC in writing so we can review the records and respond. New Jersey law governs this Agreement. If a dispute remains unresolved, it may be brought in a state or federal court of competent jurisdiction in New Jersey.

22. Electronic acceptance

By checking the acceptance box and submitting your application, you confirm that you have read and agree to this Agreement and consent to accepting it electronically. You may save or print a copy for your records.
